SPIRITUAL/RELIGIOUS FALSE BELIEF #13 · HOLY SPIRIT

“I have committed the unpardonable sin.”

Where it often comes from

A frightening sermon about blasphemy against the Spirit. A blasphemous or angry thought that popped into your mind and would not go away. Saying something against God in a moment of pain. A sensitive or anxious conscience that keeps checking whether you are forgiven. Intrusive, unwanted thoughts are common, especially during anxiety, and they are not the same as a settled choice of the heart.

What Scripture teaches

Jesus spoke of blasphemy against the Spirit to religious leaders who saw His work and deliberately called the Spirit’s work evil. It describes a hardened heart that rejects Christ to the end, not an unwanted thought or a moment of anger. Jesus promised that all other sins and blasphemies can be forgiven. The very fact that you are worried about this, and want God, is strong evidence that your heart is not hardened against Him.

> “Truly I tell you, the sons of men will be forgiven all sins and blasphemies, as many as they utter. But whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven; he is guilty of eternal sin. Jesus made this statement because they were saying, ‘He has an unclean spirit.’” (Mark 3:28–30).

Common self-statements

- I’ve gone too far and God can never forgive me.
- That thought proves I blasphemed the Spirit.
- It’s too late for me.
- I keep checking, and I still don’t feel forgiven.
- God has turned His back on me forever.
- There’s no point in praying anymore.

Common logical errors

- Emotional reasoning: Concluding “I feel unforgiven, so I must be unforgivable.”
- Thought–action fusion: Treating an unwanted thought as if it were a deliberate act of the heart.
- Catastrophizing: Jumping to the worst possible spiritual conclusion from one moment.
- Taking Scripture out of context: Applying Jesus’ warning to the Pharisees to a frightened believer who wants God.

- Disqualifying the positive: Ignoring Jesus' promise that He will never drive away anyone who comes to Him.

Challenging questions

- Who was Jesus speaking to in Mark 3, and what were they doing?
- Do I want to be close to God? Does a hardened heart want that?
- Was my thought something I chose and treasure, or something I hate?
- What does Jesus say about everyone who comes to Him?
- Has my fear grown out of Scripture, or out of anxiety and checking?
- If I confess my sins, what does 1 John 1:9 promise?
- Would someone who truly rejected the Spirit be this troubled about it?

Truth summary

> I have not committed the unpardonable sin. Jesus warned hardened leaders who called His Spirit's work evil, not frightened believers with unwanted thoughts. My concern about this shows my heart still wants God. Jesus will never drive away anyone who comes to Him, and when I confess, He is faithful to forgive me.

5 My practice plan

Everyone does the first three. Then pick one or two extra tools.

EVERYONE DOES THESE

- ☐ Make my Truth Card (below). Carry it and read it at least three times a day.
- ☐ Memorize my Scripture from Step 4.
- ☐ Set reminders to silently repeat my truth. Check one or more:
  - ☐ A buzz: my watch or phone vibrates every _____ minutes
  - ☐ An everyday event: every time I _____
  - ☐ A visual reminder: something I will see often, such as a sticky note on my mirror, my truth as the background picture on my phone, or a note on my car dashboard.

PICK ONE OR TWO THAT FIT ME

- ☐ Checking log: Each time I feel the urge to re-check whether I am forgiven, write a mark and read John 6:37 once, instead of reviewing my thoughts.
- ☐ My name in Scripture: Rewrite my verse with my name in it and read it aloud each morning.
  For example, John 6:37 becomes: "Everyone the Father gives Me will come to Me, and when Sarah comes to Me I will never drive her away."
- ☐ Gratitude journal: Each night, write three things I thank God for.
- ☐ Truth recording: Record my own voice reading my Truth Card and verse, and listen in the car or on a walk.
- ☐ Reading: The "Forgiveness" topic in Pearls.
- ☐ Listening: The Overcoming Anxiety audio download.

6 My action step this week

Do one thing that tests the lie in real life.

- ☐ Read Mark 3:20–30 in full, and write who Jesus was speaking to and what they had said about Him.
- ☐ When the frightening thought comes, let it pass without arguing with it, praying about it again, or asking for reassurance. Notice what happens to the anxiety.
- ☐ Delay checking: when you want to ask someone if you are forgiven, wait thirty minutes first, then see if you still need to.
- ☐ Talk with a pastor or Christian counselor about intrusive thoughts. Many believers experience them.
