SPIRITUAL/RELIGIOUS FALSE BELIEF #48 · MIRACLES & BLESSING

“My words create my reality, so I must ‘name it and claim it.’”

✦ ✦ ✦

Where it often comes from

Teaching that faith-filled words have power to bring health, wealth, or success. Fear that saying something negative will make it happen. Hope for control in a situation that feels uncontrollable. Popular “positive confession” books and preachers. Times when speaking positively seemed to help.

What Scripture teaches

Our words matter: they can encourage or wound, and we should speak with faith and truth. But Scripture teaches that God, not our words, determines outcomes. A person plans his course, but the LORD determines his steps. James warns against confidently announcing our plans and teaches us to say, “If the Lord is willing.” We pray according to God’s will, trusting Him with the result, rather than trying to force reality with our words.

> “Come now, you who say, ‘Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, carry on business, and make a profit.’ You do not even know what will happen tomorrow! What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes. Instead, you ought to say, ‘If the Lord is willing, we will live and do this or that.’” (James 4:13–15).

Common self-statements

- If I say it with enough faith, it will happen.
- Saying something negative will make it come true.
- I have to claim my healing even if I’m still sick.
- My confession controls my future.
- I can’t admit I’m struggling, or I’ll make it worse.
- God has to do what I declare.

Common logical errors

- Magical thinking: Believing your words have power to control events.
- Fear-based thinking: Being afraid that honest words will cause bad outcomes.
- Denial: Refusing to admit real problems so as not to “confess” them.
- Reversing roles: Treating God as obligated to carry out your declarations.

Challenging questions

- Who determines my steps, according to Proverbs 16:9?
- What does James say I should add to my plans?
- Can my words overrule God's purposes?
- Did the psalmists speak honestly about their troubles?
- Am I trying to control the future out of fear?
- Is praying "Your will be done" a lack of faith, or the heart of faith?
- What is the difference between speaking faith and demanding outcomes?

5 My practice plan

Everyone does the first three. Then pick one or two extra tools.

EVERYONE DOES THESE

- ☐ Make my Truth Card (below). Carry it and read it at least three times a day.
- ☐ Memorize my Scripture from Step 4.
- ☐ Set reminders to silently repeat my truth. Check one or more:
  - ☐ A buzz: my watch or phone vibrates every _____ minutes
  - ☐ An everyday event: every time I _____
  - ☐ A visual reminder: something I will see often, such as a sticky note on my mirror, my truth as the background picture on my phone, or a note on my car dashboard.

PICK ONE OR TWO THAT FIT ME

- ☐ Honest prayer log: Each day, write one honest prayer about a real problem, ending with "Your will be done."
- ☐ My name in Scripture: Rewrite my verse with my name in it and read it aloud each morning.
  For example, Proverbs 16:9 becomes: "Sarah's heart plans her course, but the LORD determines her steps."
- ☐ Gratitude journal: Each night, write three things I thank God for.
- ☐ Truth recording: Record my own voice reading my Truth Card and verse, and listen in the car or on a walk.
- ☐ Reading: The "Will of God" topic in Pearls.
- ☐ Listening: The Overcoming Anxiety audio download.

6 My action step this week

Do one thing that tests the lie in real life.

- ☐ Say one honest sentence about a struggle to God or a trusted friend, and notice that nothing bad happens because you said it.
- ☐ Add "if the Lord is willing" to your plans this week, and notice how it feels.
- ☐ Read Jesus' prayer in Gethsemane in Matthew 26:39, and write how He combined honesty with trust.
- ☐ Use your words to encourage one person each day this week.
