SPIRITUAL/RELIGIOUS FALSE BELIEF #73 · RESURRECTION & THE BODY

“My illness, disability, or scars will last forever.”

✦ ✦ ✦

Where it often comes from

Living with chronic illness, pain, or disability. Physical scars from injury, surgery, or abuse. Losing abilities with age. Not knowing what Scripture says about the resurrection body. Discouragement that makes the future look like more of the same.

What Scripture teaches

God promises that our bodies will be raised imperishable, glorious, and powerful. What is sown in weakness is raised in power. Isaiah foresaw the blind seeing, the deaf hearing, and the lame leaping like a deer. God says, “Behold, I make all things new,” and promises no more death, mourning, crying, or pain. Your present sufferings are real, but they are not comparable to the glory that will be revealed. Whatever you carry now is not forever.

> “Then the eyes of the blind will be opened and the ears of the deaf unstopped. Then the lame will leap like a deer and the mute tongue will shout for joy. For waters will gush forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert” (Isaiah 35:5–6).

Also see

> “So will it be with the resurrection of the dead: What is sown is perishable; it is raised imperishable. It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body” (1 Corinthians 15:42–44).

> “‘He will wipe away every tear from their eyes,’ and there will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the former things have passed away” (Revelation 21:4).

> “But our citizenship is in heaven, and we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, who, by the power that enables Him to subject all things to Himself, will transform our lowly bodies to be like His glorious body” (Philippians 3:20–21).

> “I consider that our present sufferings are not comparable to the glory that will be revealed in us” (Romans 8:18).

Common self-statements

- I’ll always be like this.
- My body will never be whole.
- My scars define me forever.
- There’s no hope for my body.
- Heaven won’t change this.
- I’ll carry this pain forever.

Common logical errors

- Fortune telling: Predicting that your present condition is permanent forever.
- Overgeneralization: Turning “this is hard now” into “this will always be.”
- Mental filter: Focusing on present pain while overlooking God’s promises.

- Labeling: Letting an illness or scar define who you are.

Challenging questions

- What does Isaiah 35 promise for the blind, deaf, and lame?
- What will happen to what is sown in weakness?
- What does God promise about pain in the new creation?
- How does Romans 8:18 compare present suffering with future glory?
- Who am I apart from my illness or scars?
- What does it mean that God makes all things new?
- How can hope for the future help me today?

Truth summary

> My illness, disability, or scars will not last forever. God promises to raise my body imperishable, glorious, and powerful. In the new creation there will be no more pain. My present suffering is real, but it is not comparable to the glory that will be revealed. God will make all things new, including me.

2 My best question

The one question I will ask myself every time the lie shows up.

- ☐ What does Isaiah promise for the lame and blind?
- ☐ What happens to what is sown in weakness?
- ☐ What does God promise about pain?
- ☐ How does present suffering compare to future glory?
- ☐ Who am I apart from my condition?
- ☐ What does "all things new" mean for me?

My own question: _____

3 My replacement truth

The statement I will say to myself instead of the lie.

- ☐ My present condition is not forever.
- ☐ My body will be raised in glory and power.
- ☐ There will be no more pain.
- ☐ God makes all things new.
- ☐ My suffering now is not comparable to the coming glory.
- ☐ My illness or scars do not define me.

4 My Scripture

The verse that speaks most directly to me. This is the one I will memorize.

- [ ] Isaiah 35:5–6
  "Then the eyes of the blind will be opened and the ears of the deaf unstopped. Then the lame will leap like a deer and the mute tongue will shout for joy. For waters will gush forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert."
- [ ] 1 Corinthians 15:42–44
  "So will it be with the resurrection of the dead: What is sown is perishable; it is raised imperishable. It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body."
- [ ] Revelation 21:4
  "'He will wipe away every tear from their eyes,' and there will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the former things have passed away."
- [ ] Philippians 3:20–21
  "But our citizenship is in heaven, and we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, who, by the power that enables Him to subject all things to Himself, will transform our lowly bodies to be like His glorious body."
- [ ] Romans 8:18
  "I consider that our present sufferings are not comparable to the glory that will be revealed in us."

5 My practice plan

Everyone does the first three. Then pick one or two extra tools.

EVERYONE DOES THESE

- ☐ Make my Truth Card (below). Carry it and read it at least three times a day.
- ☐ Memorize my Scripture from Step 4.
- ☐ Set reminders to silently repeat my truth. Check one or more:
  - ☐ A buzz: my watch or phone vibrates every _____ minutes
  - ☐ An everyday event: every time I _____
  - ☐ A visual reminder: something I will see often, such as a sticky note on my mirror, my truth as the background picture on my phone, or a note on my car dashboard.

PICK ONE OR TWO THAT FIT ME

- ☐ Hope log: Each day, write one hard thing about my body and one promise about the body God will give me.
- ☐ My name in Scripture: Rewrite my verse with my name in it and read it aloud each morning.
  For example, Philippians 3:20–21 becomes: "But Sarah's citizenship is in heaven, and she eagerly awaits a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform her lowly body to be like His glorious body."
- ☐ Gratitude journal: Each night, write three things I thank God for.
- ☐ Truth recording: Record my own voice reading my Truth Card and verse, and listen in the car or on a walk.
- ☐ Reading: The "Sickness" topic in Pearls.
- ☐ Listening: The Overcoming Depression audio download.

6 My action step this week

Do one thing that tests the lie in real life.

- ☐ Read Isaiah 35 aloud, and circle every promise of restoration.
- ☐ Write a letter to your future, resurrected self, describing what you look forward to.
- ☐ Tell a trusted friend honestly how your condition affects you, and ask them to pray.
- ☐ Find one small way to live fully today within your present limits.
