My Plan for Replacing "Something is wrong with me"

✦ ✦ ✦

Read through each section and check the one that fits you best. If none of them fit, write your own. One choice per section is enough. A truth you choose for yourself will stick better than one handed to you.

1 How strongly do I believe the lie?

Rate it now so you can see your progress later.

"Something is wrong with me." I believe this _____ % (0 = not at all, 100 = completely)

2 My best question

The one question I will ask myself every time the lie shows up.

- ☐ What do I mean when I say something is wrong with me?
- ☐ Where did I first learn this belief?
- ☐ Is this something I have, or who I am?
- ☐ What would I say to a friend with the same struggle?
- ☐ What evidence says I am valued and capable?
- ☐ What does God say about the people He has made?

My own question: _____

3 My replacement truth

The statement I will say to myself instead of the lie.

- ☐ I am fearfully and wonderfully made.
- ☐ Having a struggle does not make me defective.
- ☐ What was done to me does not define me.
- ☐ God knows me fully and still loves me.
- ☐ I can grow without first proving I am worth it.
- ☐ In Christ, there is no condemnation for me.

In my own words: _____

4 My Scripture

The verse that speaks most directly to me. This is the one I will memorize.

- ☐ Psalm 139:13–14
  "For You formed my inmost being; You knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Marvelous are Your works, and I know this very well."
- ☐ Ephesians 2:10
  "For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance as our way of life."
- ☐ Romans 8:1
  "Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus."

Practicing the Truth

5 My practice plan

Everyone does the first four. Then pick one or two extra tools.

EVERYONE DOES THESE

- [ ] Make my Truth Card (below). Carry it and read it at least three times a day.
- [ ] Memorize my Scripture from Step 4.
- [ ] Listen to one song each day from "Songs that speak truth to this belief" on my card, and fill in my song journal (below).
- [ ] Set reminders to silently repeat my truth. Check one or more:
  - ☐ A buzz: my watch or phone vibrates every _____ minutes
  - ☐ An everyday event: every time I _____
  - ☐ A visual reminder: something I will see often, such as a sticky note on my mirror, my truth as the background picture on my phone, or a note on my car dashboard.

PICK ONE OR TWO THAT FIT ME

- [ ] When the "something is wrong with me" feeling came: Each day, write down one moment when you felt broken or different. Write what happened, what you told yourself, and one more accurate statement.
- [ ] My name in Scripture: Write a personal reminder based on my verse and read it aloud. Keep this application separate from the Bible quotation.

  For example, Psalm 139:13–14 becomes: "Sarah can write: "God knit me together. I have struggles, but I am not a mistake; I am wonderfully made.""
- [ ] Gratitude journal: Each night, write three things I thank God for.
- [ ] Truth recording: Record my own voice reading my Truth Card and verse, and listen in the car or on a walk.
- [ ] Reading: The "Self-Esteem, Low" topic in Pearls.
- [ ] Listening: The Overcoming Depression audio by Dr. Brian Campbell. Tap to play.

6 My action step this week

Do one thing that tests the lie in real life.

Choose steps you can do safely. If this belief comes with hopelessness or thoughts of ending your life, call or text 988 (the Suicide & Crisis Lifeline), or call 911 in an emergency. You do not have to carry this alone.

- [ ] Separate the struggle from the self. Write the belief as "I am...". Then rewrite it as "I have..." or "I struggle with...". Notice how the second version feels.
- [ ] Collect the other side of the evidence. Ask one trusted person to tell you two good things they see in you. Write them down and read them, even if you do not believe them yet.
- [ ] Let one safe person see a little more of you. Share one small, honest thing about yourself with a trusted friend, family member, or church member. Notice whether they turn away or stay.
- [ ] Get help for what is real. If something truly needs attention, such as a health concern, a habit, or a painful memory, take one step toward help this week: a doctor, pastor, or counselor.

Copy onto a 3×5 card, or cut along the dashed line and carry it with you.

Prayer

Lord, You formed me and You know me completely. When I feel broken or different, remind me that I am Your workmanship and not a mistake. Help me separate my struggles from who I am, bring my wounds to You for healing, and receive the love You have already given me in Christ. Amen.
