CORE FALSE BELIEF #10 · OTHER PEOPLE

“No one will care for me when I need them.”

✦ ✦ ✦

Where it often comes from

This belief often starts in homes where needs were ignored, dismissed, or punished, or where a child had to care for a parent instead of being cared for. Times of illness, crisis, or grief when no one showed up can deepen it. People who hold this belief often become fiercely self-reliant, never ask for help, and then feel confirmed when no one offers.

What Scripture teaches

God invites us to cast all our anxiety on Him, because He cares for us. Jesus pointed to the birds of the air and reminded us that our Father feeds them, and we are worth much more. The Lord is near to all who call on Him. Scripture also calls believers to carry one another’s burdens; caring for each other is how God designed His family to work. People may have failed you, but God cares, and He often sends His care through people when we let them in.

> “Cast all your anxiety on Him, because He cares for you” (1 Peter 5:7).

Also see

> “Cast your burden upon the LORD and He will sustain you; He will never let the righteous be shaken” (Psalm 55:22).

> “Look at the birds of the air: They do not sow or reap or gather into barns—and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they?” (Matthew 6:26).

> “The LORD is near to all who call on Him, to all who call out to Him in truth” (Psalm 145:18).

> “Carry one another’s burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ” (Galatians 6:2).

Common self-statements

- If I fall apart, no one will be there.
- I have to take care of myself because no one else will.
- Asking for help is pointless.
- People only show up when they need something.
- My needs are a burden to others.
- I’m on my own.

Common logical errors

- Overgeneralization: Deciding that because some people didn’t care, no one will.
- Fortune telling: Predicting that no one will help before I ask.
- Discounting the positive: Overlooking times when people did help.
- Mind reading: Assuming others see my needs as a burden.

Challenging questions

- When were my needs ignored, and by whom?
- When has someone cared for me, even a little?
- Do I let people know when I need help?
- Am I so self-reliant that no one gets the chance to care?

- What does God say about His care for me?
- Who is one person I could ask for help?

Truth summary

> There were times when no one cared for me as I needed. But God cares for me, and He often sends His care through people. I can let my needs be known, ask for help, and give others the chance to show up.

Songs that speak truth to this belief

He Knows — Jeremy Camp
Jesus understands suffering and invites people to bring their burdens to Him.

Jesus — Chris Tomlin
Jesus is present in suffering and is greater than the circumstances we face.

Just Be Held — Casting Crowns
God's care remains when control, strength, or explanations run out.

What a Friend We Have in Jesus — Keith and Kristyn Getty
This classic hymn invites direct, honest prayer with the Savior who carries our burdens.

Each morning ask: "If I truly believed God's truth instead of this lie, how would I think, speak, and act today?"

My Plan for Replacing "No one will care for me when I need them"

✦ ✦ ✦

Read through each section and check the one that fits you best. If none of them fit, write your own. One choice per section is enough. A truth you choose for yourself will stick better than one handed to you.

Name: _____ Date started: _____

1 How strongly do I believe the lie?

Rate it now so you can see your progress later.

"No one will care for me when I need them." I believe this _____ % (0 = not at all, 100 = completely)

2 My best question

The one question I will ask myself every time the lie shows up.

- ☐ When were my needs ignored?
- ☐ When has someone cared for me?
- ☐ Do I let people know my needs?
- ☐ Am I so self-reliant that no one can help?
- ☐ What does God say about His care?
- ☐ Who could I ask for help?

My own question: _____

3 My replacement truth

The statement I will say to myself instead of the lie.

- ☐ God cares for me.
- ☐ I can cast my burdens on the Lord.
- ☐ My Father knows what I need.
- ☐ Asking for help is not weakness.
- ☐ God's family is meant to carry burdens together.
- ☐ The Lord is near when I call.

In my own words: _____

4 My Scripture

The verse that speaks most directly to me. This is the one I will memorize.

- ☐ 1 Peter 5:7
  "Cast all your anxiety on Him, because He cares for you."
- ☐ Psalm 55:22
  "Cast your burden upon the LORD and He will sustain you; He will never let the righteous be shaken."
- ☐ Galatians 6:2
  "Carry one another's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ."

Practicing the Truth

5 My practice plan

Everyone does the first four. Then pick one or two extra tools.

EVERYONE DOES THESE

- ☐ Make my Truth Card (below). Carry it and read it at least three times a day.
- ☐ Memorize my Scripture from Step 4.
- ☐ Listen to one song each day from "Songs that speak truth to this belief" on my card, and fill in my song journal (below).
- ☐ Set reminders to silently repeat my truth. Check one or more:
  - ☐ A buzz: my watch or phone vibrates every _____ minutes
  - ☐ An everyday event: every time I _____
  - ☐ A visual reminder: something I will see often, such as a sticky note on my mirror, my truth as the background picture on my phone, or a note on my car dashboard.

PICK ONE OR TWO THAT FIT ME

- ☐ Care I received: Each day, write one way someone cared for you, or one time you asked for help and what happened.
- ☐ My name in Scripture: Write a personal reminder based on my verse and read it aloud. Keep this application separate from the Bible quotation.

  For example, 1 Peter 5:7 becomes: "Karen can write: "I can give my worries to God, because He cares for me.""
- ☐ Gratitude journal: Each night, write three things I thank God for.
- ☐ Truth recording: Record my own voice reading my Truth Card and verse, and listen in the car or on a walk.
- ☐ Reading: The "Help" topic in Pearls.
- ☐ Listening: The Overcoming Depression audio by Dr. Brian Campbell. Tap to play.

6 My action step this week

Do one thing that tests the lie in real life.

Choose steps you can do safely. If this belief comes with hopelessness or thoughts of ending your life, call or text 988 (the Suicide & Crisis Lifeline), or call 911 in an emergency. You do not have to carry this alone.

- ☐ Make a help list. Write the names of people you could call in a hard moment, even if you have never asked. Add a church or helpline.
- ☐ Ask for something small. Ask one person for a small, specific favor this week. Note how they responded.
- ☐ Tell someone how you are. When asked "How are you?" give one honest answer instead of "Fine."
- ☐ Pray your needs. Each morning, tell God one specific need, following 1 Peter 5:7.

Prayer

Father, I have felt alone in my needs for a long time. Thank You that You care for me and that I can bring every burden to You. Help me let others in, ask for help, and receive the care You send. Amen.
