“I should pray to angels for help.”

✦ ✦ ✦

Where it often comes from

Popular books, gift items, and media that encourage “calling on your angels.” Feeling that God is too big or distant to bother, while angels seem closer and more approachable. New Age spirituality mixed with Christian language. A sincere desire for protection and comfort. Not knowing what the Bible teaches about angels.

What Scripture teaches

Angels are real, and God sends them to serve and guard His people. But Scripture never directs us to pray to them. When John fell down before an angel, the angel stopped him: “Worship God!” Paul warned against the worship of angels. Jesus taught us to pray to “our Father in heaven.” You can bring every need directly to God, and He is able to command His angels as He sees fit.

> “And I am John, who heard and saw these things. And when I had heard and seen them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who had shown me these things. But he said to me, ‘Do not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your brothers the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God!’” (Revelation 22:8–9).

> “Be anxious for nothing, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:6–7).

> “Are not the angels ministering spirits sent to serve those who will inherit salvation?” (Hebrews 1:14).

> “For He will command His angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways” (Psalm 91:11).

Common self-statements

- My angels will protect me if I ask them.
- God is too busy, so I’ll ask an angel.
- Angels are easier to talk to than God.
- I need to call on the right angel for this problem.
- Praying to angels is just extra help.
- God won’t mind if I go to them instead.

Common logical errors

- Accepting an idea without checking: Adopting popular beliefs about angels without testing them by Scripture.
- Projection: Picturing God as too distant or busy to hear you directly.
- Emotional reasoning: Deciding a practice is right because it feels comforting.
- Mixing truths: Blending true facts about angels with practices Scripture warns against.

Challenging questions

- What did the angel say when John fell down before him?
- Who did Jesus teach us to pray to?
- Where in the Bible does anyone pray to an angel?
- Why would I go to a servant when I can go to the King, who is my Father?
- Who commands the angels?
- Is God really too busy for my prayers?
- Where did I learn to pray to angels: Scripture or popular culture?

Truth summary

> I do not need to pray to angels. I can pray directly to my Father in heaven, who hears me and cares for me. Angels are real, and God sends them to serve His people, but they point me to worship God, not themselves. I can thank God for His angels and bring every request to Him.

5 My practice plan

Everyone does the first three. Then pick one or two extra tools.

EVERYONE DOES THESE

- ☐ Make my Truth Card (below). Carry it and read it at least three times a day.
- ☐ Memorize my Scripture from Step 4.
- ☐ Set reminders to silently repeat my truth. Check one or more:
  - ☐ A buzz: my watch or phone vibrates every _____ minutes
  - ☐ An everyday event: every time I _____
  - ☐ A visual reminder: something I will see often, such as a sticky note on my mirror, my truth as the background picture on my phone, or a note on my car dashboard.

PICK ONE OR TWO THAT FIT ME

- ☐ Prayer log: Each day, write one request I brought directly to God and anything I noticed afterward.
- ☐ My name in Scripture: Rewrite my verse with my name in it and read it aloud each morning.
  For example, Psalm 91:11 becomes: "For He will command His angels concerning Sarah to guard her in all her ways."
- ☐ Gratitude journal: Each night, write three things I thank God for.
- ☐ Truth recording: Record my own voice reading my Truth Card and verse, and listen in the car or on a walk.
- ☐ Reading: The "Prayer, How to" topic in Pearls.
- ☐ Listening: The Overcoming Anxiety audio by Dr. Brian Campbell. Tap to play.

6 My action step this week

Do one thing that tests the lie in real life.

- ☐ Each time you are tempted to call on an angel, pray instead, "Father, You know what I need," and name it.
- ☐ Remove one item, book, or app that encourages praying to angels, and replace it with a Scripture card.
- ☐ Read every passage about angels in Hebrews 1 and write down what angels are for.
- ☐ Pray the Lord's Prayer slowly each morning this week, noticing who it is addressed to.

Our Father in heaven, thank You that I can come to You directly. Help me reject the idea that I should pray to angels. Thank You for the angels You send to serve Your people, and help me give all my worship and trust to You alone. You hear me, and You care for me. In Jesus' name, Amen.
