SPIRITUAL/RELIGIOUS FALSE BELIEF #37 · FORGIVENESS

“I must pay for my sins through suffering.”

✦ ✦ ✦

Where it often comes from

Being punished harshly as a child and learning that pain makes things right. Feeling that forgiveness is too easy unless you hurt for it. Teaching that emphasized penance more than grace. Deep shame that makes you feel you deserve to suffer. Refusing yourself rest, joy, or good things as a way of making up for the past.

What Scripture teaches

The penalty for sin is serious, and that is exactly why Jesus paid it. He was pierced for our transgressions and crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was on Him. On the cross He said, “It is finished.” Where sins have been forgiven, no further offering is needed. You may face natural consequences of your choices, and God may lovingly discipline you, but you do not pay for your sins. Jesus already did.

> “But He was pierced for our transgressions, He was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon Him, and by His stripes we are healed” (Isaiah 53:5).

Also see

> “He Himself bore our sins in His body on the tree, so that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. ‘By His stripes you are healed.’” (1 Peter 2:24).

> “When Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, ‘It is finished.’ And bowing His head, He yielded up His spirit” (John 19:30).

> “Then He adds: ‘Their sins and lawless acts I will remember no more.’ And where these have been forgiven, an offering for sin is no longer needed” (Hebrews 10:17–18).

> “But God proves His love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us” (Romans 5:8).

Common self-statements

- I don’t deserve to be happy after what I did.
- I have to suffer to make it right.
- If I’m hurting, at least I’m paying.
- God’s forgiveness is too easy; I need to earn it.
- I’ll punish myself so God doesn’t have to.
- Good things shouldn’t happen to me.

Common logical errors

- Self-punishment: Believing that hurting yourself or denying yourself good things pays for sin.
- Discounting Christ’s work: Treating the cross as if it were not enough.
- Emotional reasoning: Concluding “I feel I deserve pain, so I must pay.”
- Should statements: “I should suffer for what I’ve done.”

Challenging questions

- Who was punished for my sins, according to Isaiah 53:5?
- What did Jesus mean when He said, “It is finished”?
- If Jesus paid the price, what am I trying to add?
- Is my suffering making anything right, or just making me miserable?
- What is the difference between consequences and payment?
- Would I want someone I love to keep punishing themselves after being forgiven?
- Who taught me that pain is the price of forgiveness?

Truth summary

> I do not have to pay for my sins through suffering. Jesus took the punishment I deserved, and He said, “It is finished.” I may face consequences, and God may lovingly correct me, but the debt is paid. I can receive His forgiveness, stop punishing myself, and live in the peace He bought for me.

My Plan for Replacing "I must pay for my sins through suffering"

✦ ✦ ✦

Read through each section and check the one that fits you best. If none of them fit, write your own. One choice per section is enough. A truth you choose for yourself will stick better than one handed to you.

Name: _____ Date started: _____

1 How strongly do I believe the lie?

Rate it now so you can see your progress later.

"I must pay for my sins through suffering." I believe this _____ % (0 = not at all, 100 = completely)

2 My best question

The one question I will ask myself every time the lie shows up.

- ☐ Who was punished for my sins?
- ☐ What did Jesus mean by "It is finished"?
- ☐ What am I trying to add to the cross?
- ☐ Is my suffering making anything right?
- ☐ Consequences or payment: which is this?
- ☐ Who taught me pain is the price of forgiveness?

My own question: _____

3 My replacement truth

The statement I will say to myself instead of the lie.

- ☐ Jesus took the punishment for my sins.
- ☐ It is finished; the debt is paid.
- ☐ I do not have to punish myself.
- ☐ Consequences are not payment.
- ☐ The punishment that brought me peace was on Him.
- ☐ I can receive forgiveness as a gift.

4 My Scripture

The verse that speaks most directly to me. This is the one I will memorize.

- [ ] Isaiah 53:5
  "But He was pierced for our transgressions, He was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon Him, and by His stripes we are healed."
- [ ] 1 Peter 2:24
  "He Himself bore our sins in His body on the tree, so that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. 'By His stripes you are healed.'"
- [ ] John 19:30
  "When Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, 'It is finished.' And bowing His head, He yielded up His spirit."
- [ ] Hebrews 10:17–18
  "Then He adds: 'Their sins and lawless acts I will remember no more.' And where these have been forgiven, an offering for sin is no longer needed."
- [ ] Romans 5:8
  "But God proves His love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us."

5 My practice plan

Everyone does the first three. Then pick one or two extra tools.

EVERYONE DOES THESE

- ☐ Make my Truth Card (below). Carry it and read it at least three times a day.
- ☐ Memorize my Scripture from Step 4.
- ☐ Set reminders to silently repeat my truth. Check one or more:
  - ☐ A buzz: my watch or phone vibrates every _____ minutes
  - ☐ An everyday event: every time I _____
  - ☐ A visual reminder: something I will see often, such as a sticky note on my mirror, my truth as the background picture on my phone, or a note on my car dashboard.

PICK ONE OR TWO THAT FIT ME

- ☐ Paid in full log: Each time I feel I must suffer for a sin, write "Paid in full by Jesus" and do one kind thing for myself instead.
- ☐ My name in Scripture: Rewrite my verse with my name in it and read it aloud each morning.
  For example, Isaiah 53:5 becomes: "But He was pierced for Sarah's transgressions, He was crushed for her iniquities; the punishment that brought her peace was upon Him, and by His stripes she is healed."
- ☐ Gratitude journal: Each night, write three things I thank God for.
- ☐ Truth recording: Record my own voice reading my Truth Card and verse, and listen in the car or on a walk.
- ☐ Reading: The "Christ, Sacrifice of" topic in Pearls.
- ☐ Listening: The Overcoming Depression audio by Dr. Brian Campbell. Tap to play.

6 My action step this week

Do one thing that tests the lie in real life.

- ☐ Allow yourself one good thing this week you have been denying yourself because of guilt, and thank God for it.
- ☐ Write "PAID IN FULL" across a list of the sins you feel you must pay for, then tear it up.
- ☐ Read Isaiah 53 slowly, and underline every phrase that says what Jesus did for you.
- ☐ If you are harming yourself in any way to pay for sin, tell a counselor, pastor, or trusted person this week.

Prayer

Lord Jesus, thank You that You were pierced for my transgressions and crushed for my iniquities. Help me reject the lie that I must pay for my sins through suffering. You said, "It is finished," and I believe You. Help me stop punishing myself and live in the peace You purchased for me. In Your name, Amen.
