SPIRITUAL/RELIGIOUS FALSE BELIEF #120 · THE END TIMES

“Natural disasters are God punishing the people they strike.”

Where it often comes from

Public figures who blame disasters on the sins of certain groups. Teaching that every tragedy is a direct judgment. Trying to make sense of devastating events. Fear that a disaster in your life means God is angry with you. Confusing the general brokenness of creation with specific punishment.

What Scripture teaches

God is sovereign over creation, and Scripture records some specific judgments. But Jesus directly rejected the idea that victims of disasters are worse sinners. When a tower fell and killed eighteen people, He said they were not more guilty than others. The whole creation is groaning under the effects of sin, and God sends sun and rain on the righteous and the unrighteous alike. Disasters remind all of us of our need for God, and they call us to compassion, not judgment, toward those who suffer.

> “Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower of Siloam collapsed on them: Do you think that they were more sinful than all the others living in Jerusalem? No, I tell you. But unless you repent, you too will all perish” (Luke 13:4–5).

> “That you may be sons of your Father in heaven. He causes His sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous” (Matthew 5:45).

> “We know that the whole creation has been groaning together in the pains of childbirth until the present time” (Romans 8:22).

> “The Lord is not slow in keeping His promise as some understand slowness, but is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish but everyone to come to repentance” (2 Peter 3:9).

> “And the One seated on the throne said, ‘Behold, I make all things new.’ Then He said, ‘Write this down, for these words are faithful and true.’” (Revelation 21:5).

Challenging questions

- Were they worse sinners than others?
- What does Matthew 5:45 say about sun and rain?
- Why is all of creation groaning, according to Romans 8:22?
