PSYCHOLOGICAL/COGNITIVE FALSE BELIEF #34 · DEPRESSION

“Nobody really cares about me.”

Where it often comes from

People who were overlooked, criticized, or left to manage pain alone often decide that care is something other people receive. A busy family, a cold church, friends who drifted, or a depression that makes every face look indifferent can all feed the conclusion. Sometimes care was truly missing. The lie is the leap from “I have been missed” to “nobody, including God, really cares.”

What Scripture teaches

Scripture says God’s care is not a mood and not a rumor. “Cast all your anxiety on Him, because He cares for you.” He says a mother may forget her child, and He will not forget you; your name is inscribed on His hands. He is near the brokenhearted. Nothing in creation can separate His people from His love in Christ. These verses do not deny lonely days. They deny that loneliness is the same thing as being uncared for.

> “Cast all your anxiety on Him, because He cares for you” (1 Peter 5:7).

Also see

> “‘Can a woman forget her nursing child, or lack compassion for the son of her womb? Even if she could forget, I will not forget you! Behold, I have inscribed you on the palms of My hands; your walls are ever before Me.’” (Isaiah 49:15–16).

> “The LORD your God is among you; He is mighty to save. He will rejoice over you with gladness; He will quiet you with His love; He will rejoice over you with singing” (Zephaniah 3:17).

> “The LORD is near to the brokenhearted; He saves the contrite in spirit” (Psalm 34:18).

> “For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor principalities, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord” (Romans 8:38–39).

Common self-statements

- If anyone cared, I would be able to tell.
- People only stay until they know me.
- I am on my own. That is just how it is.
- God has more important people to look after.
- Asking for care would only bother someone.
- No one would notice if I disappeared.

Common logical errors

- Mind reading: Deciding what others feel without asking them.
- Overgeneralization: Turning some neglect into “nobody cares.”
- Emotional reasoning: Feeling alone and concluding that I am unloved.
- Discounting the positive: Setting aside the people and the mercies that have already shown care.

Challenging questions

- Who has shown me care, even if it was imperfect?
- Am I reading indifference into people who have not been told what I need?
- What would “someone cares” have to look like before I could see it?
- Have I let anyone close enough to care for me lately?
- What does God say about His care for me?
- Who is one safe person I could tell the truth to this week?

Truth summary

> Feeling uncared for is not the same as being forgotten. God cares for me, and I can let a safe person care for me too.

My Plan for Replacing "Nobody really cares about me."

✦ ✦ ✦

Read through each section and check the one that fits you best. If none of them fit, write your own. One choice per section is enough. A truth you choose for yourself will stick better than one handed to you.

1 How strongly do I believe the lie?

Rate it now so you can see your progress later.

"Nobody really cares about me." I believe this _____ % (0 = not at all, 100 = completely)

2 My best question

The one question I will ask myself every time the lie shows up.

- ☐ Who has shown me care, even if it was imperfect?
- ☐ Am I reading indifference into people who have not been told what I need?
- ☐ What would "someone cares" have to look like before I could see it?
- ☐ Have I let anyone close enough to care for me lately?
- ☐ What does God say about His care for me?
- ☐ Who is one safe person I could tell the truth to this week?

My own question: _____

3 My replacement truth

The statement I will say to myself instead of the lie.

- ☐ Feeling uncared for is not the same as being forgotten. God cares for me, and I can let a safe person care for me too.
- ☐ God cares for me, even when I cannot feel it.
- ☐ Some people have cared, and some still can.
- ☐ I can ask for care instead of assuming it will never come.
- ☐ Loneliness is real, and it is not a verdict on my worth.
- ☐ My name is not forgotten by God.

In my own words: _____

4 My Scripture

The verse that speaks most directly to me. This is the one I will memorize.

- ☐ 1 Peter 5:7
  "Cast all your anxiety on Him, because He cares for you."
- ☐ Isaiah 49:15–16
  "'Can a woman forget her nursing child, or lack compassion for the son of her womb? Even if she could forget, I will not forget you! Behold, I have inscribed you on the palms of My hands; your walls are ever before Me.'"

Practicing the Truth

5 My practice plan

Everyone does the first four. Then pick one or two extra tools.

EVERYONE DOES THESE

- [ ] Make my Truth Card (below). Carry it and read it at least three times a day.
- [ ] Memorize my Scripture from Step 4.
- [ ] Listen to one song each day from "Songs that speak truth to this belief" on my card, and fill in my song journal (below).
- [ ] Set reminders to silently repeat my truth. Check one or more:
  - ☐ A buzz: my watch or phone vibrates every _____ minutes
  - ☐ An everyday event: every time I _____
  - ☐ A visual reminder: something I will see often, such as a sticky note on my mirror, my truth as the background picture on my phone, or a note on my car dashboard.

PICK ONE OR TWO THAT FIT ME

- [ ] When the "nobody cares" feeling came: Each day, write down one moment when you felt unseen. Write what happened, what you told yourself, and one more accurate statement.
- [ ] My name in Scripture: Write a personal reminder based on my verse and read it aloud. Keep this application separate from the Bible quotation.

  For example, 1 Peter 5:7 becomes: "Sarah can write: "I can bring this worry to God, because He cares for me.""
- [ ] Gratitude journal: Each night, write three things I thank God for.
- [ ] Truth recording: Record my own voice reading my Truth Card and verse, and listen in the car or on a walk.
- [ ] Reading: The "Loneliness" topic in Pearls.
- [ ] Listening: The Overcoming Depression audio or the Overcoming Anxiety audio by Dr. Brian Campbell. Tap to play.

6 My action step this week

Do one thing that tests the lie in real life.

Choose steps you can do safely. If this belief comes with hopelessness or thoughts of ending your life, call or text 988 (the Suicide & Crisis Lifeline), or call 911 in an emergency. You do not have to carry this alone.

- [ ] List the evidence of care. Write three times someone showed up, prayed, listened, or helped. Read the list when the lie says nobody.
- [ ] Tell one person what you need. Ask a safe friend, family member, or pastor for one specific thing, such as a call or a meal. Notice what they do.
- [ ] Receive a small kindness. When someone offers help this week, say yes once, and write how it felt.
- [ ] Bring the loneliness to God in a sentence. Each morning, pray 1 Peter 5:7 in your own words.
