SPIRITUAL/RELIGIOUS FALSE BELIEF #5 · GOD

“God loves some people more than others.”

Where it often comes from

Growing up with a parent who had a favorite child, or being compared with a brother, sister, or classmate. Watching others receive blessings, healing, or answered prayers you did not. Church cultures that seemed to honor the gifted, wealthy, or “super-spiritual.” Feeling left out, overlooked, or second-best.

What Scripture teaches

God does not play favorites. He loves the whole world, and He sent His Son for every person who believes. In Christ, all believers stand on equal ground as His children. God gives different gifts and roles, and lives unfold differently, but different blessings are not a measure of different love. In the body of Christ, the parts that seem weaker are indispensable.

> “I now realize how true it is that God does not show favoritism but accepts from every nation the one who fears him and does what is right” (Acts 10:34–35).

> “There is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither slave nor free, nor is there male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus” (Galatians 3:28).

> “The eye cannot say to the hand, ‘I don’t need you!’ And the head cannot say to the feet, ‘I don’t need you!’ On the contrary, those parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable” (1 Corinthians 12:21–22).

Common self-statements

- God has favorites, and I’m not one of them.
- Their blessings prove that God loves them more.
- God answers their prayers but not mine.
- I’m a second-class Christian.
- God uses other people; He just puts up with me.
- If God loved me as much, my life would look like theirs.

Common logical errors

- Comparison: Measuring God’s love for you by what you can see of other people’s lives.
- Jumping to conclusions: Assuming that someone’s health, money, or success shows how much God loves them.
- Projection: Picturing God as a parent who had a favorite child.

- Mental filter: Noticing every blessing others receive while overlooking the blessings in your own life.
- Personalization: Taking another person's good fortune as a statement about your worth.
- Emotional reasoning: Concluding "I feel overlooked, so God must love me less."

Challenging questions

- What is the actual evidence that God loves them more than me?
- Am I measuring God's love by blessings I can see?
- Did someone in my family or church have a favorite? Am I picturing God like them?
- Do I really know what struggles the people I envy are carrying?
- Did Christ die for some believers more than for others?
- Have I overlooked the gifts and blessings God has given me?

Truth summary

> God does not play favorites. He loved the world enough to give His Son, and in Christ I am His child on equal footing with every other believer. God gives different gifts, roles, and seasons, but different blessings are not a measure of different love. My place in His family is not second-class; I am needed and fully loved.

1 How strongly do I believe the lie?

Rate it now so you can see your progress later.

"God loves some people more than others." I believe this _____ % (0 = not at all, 100 = completely)

2 My best question

The one question I will ask myself every time the lie shows up.

- ☐ What is the actual evidence that God loves them more than me?
- ☐ Am I measuring God's love by blessings I can see?
- ☐ Am I picturing God like someone who had a favorite?
- ☐ Do I really know what the people I envy are carrying?
- ☐ Did Christ die for some believers more than others?
- ☐ Am I overlooking the blessings God has given me?

My own question: _____

3 My replacement truth

The statement I will say to myself instead of the lie.

- ☐ God does not show favoritism.
- ☐ In Christ, I am fully God's child.
- ☐ Different blessings are not different love.
- ☐ I am needed in the body of Christ.
- ☐ God loves me as much as He loves anyone.
- ☐ My life does not have to look like theirs for God to love me.

4 My Scripture

The verse that speaks most directly to me. This is the one I will memorize.

- [ ] Acts 10:34–35
  "I now realize how true it is that God does not show favoritism but accepts from every nation the one who fears him and does what is right."
- [ ] Romans 2:11
  "For God does not show favoritism."
- [ ] John 3:16
  "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life."
- [ ] Galatians 3:28
  "There is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither slave nor free, nor is there male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus."
- [ ] 1 Corinthians 12:21–22
  "The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I don't need you!' And the head cannot say to the feet, 'I don't need you!' On the contrary, those parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable."

5 My practice plan

Everyone does the first three. Then pick one or two extra tools.

EVERYONE DOES THESE

- ☐ Make my Truth Card (below). Carry it and read it at least three times a day.
- ☐ Memorize my Scripture from Step 4.
- ☐ Set reminders to silently repeat my truth. Check one or more:
  - ☐ A buzz: my watch or phone vibrates every _____ minutes
  - ☐ An everyday event: every time I _____
  - ☐ A visual reminder: something I will see often, such as a sticky note on my mirror, my truth as the background picture on my phone, or a note on my car dashboard.

PICK ONE OR TWO THAT FIT ME

- ☐ Evidence log: Each day, write down one blessing in my own life that I would miss if it were gone.
- ☐ My name in Scripture: Rewrite my verse with my name in it and read it aloud each morning.
  For example, John 3:16 becomes: "For God so loved Sarah that he gave his one and only Son, that if Sarah believes in him she shall not perish but have eternal life."
- ☐ Gratitude journal: Each night, write three things I thank God for.
- ☐ Truth recording: Record my own voice reading my Truth Card and verse, and listen in the car or on a walk.
- ☐ Reading: The "Love, By God" topic in Pearls.
- ☐ Listening: The Overcoming Depression audio download.

6 My action step this week

Do one thing that tests the lie in real life.

- ☐ Take a break from social media for three days, or mute the accounts that set off comparison, and notice how you feel.
- ☐ Write a list of ten blessings in your own life, including some you usually overlook.
- ☐ Use your gift for someone else: do one quiet act of service that uses something God has given you.
- ☐ Pray a blessing over the person you envy, and notice what happens in your heart.

Prayer

Father, help me reject the lie that You love some people more than me. Thank You that You do not show favoritism and that in Christ I am fully Your child. Free me from comparing my life to others, open my eyes to the blessings You have given me, and help me use my gifts for Your glory. In Jesus' name, Amen.
