SPIRITUAL/RELIGIOUS FALSE BELIEF #103 · GOD'S WILL & GUIDANCE

"I need a clear sign from God before I can decide anything."

✦ ✦ ✦

Where it often comes from

Stories like Gideon's fleece used as a model for every decision. Fear of making a mistake. Anxiety that seeks certainty before acting. Teaching that God always gives unmistakable signs. Past decisions that went badly, which make you afraid to choose.

What Scripture teaches

God sometimes gives special guidance, but Scripture does not teach that we must wait for a sign before every decision. Instead, God gives wisdom generously to those who ask. Paul prayed that believers would be filled with the knowledge of God's will through spiritual wisdom and understanding. A renewed mind can discern God's good will. God promises to instruct and counsel you as you walk with Him. Often His guidance comes as you take wise, prayerful steps.

> "For this reason, since the day we heard about you, we have not stopped praying for you and asking God to fill you with the knowledge of His will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so that you may walk in a manner worthy of the Lord and may please Him in every way: bearing fruit in every good work, growing in the knowledge of God" (Colossians 1:9–10).

Common self-statements

- I can't move until God shows me clearly.
- Without a sign, I might choose wrong.
- God hasn't spoken, so I'll wait.
- Everyone else gets clear signs except me.
- If I decide without a sign, I'm not trusting God.
- I'm stuck until I'm certain.

Common logical errors

- Intolerance of uncertainty: Needing certainty before taking any step.
- Should statements: "I should have a clear sign before I decide."
- Overgeneralization: Treating rare biblical signs as the normal way God guides.

- Avoidance: Delaying decisions out of fear.

Challenging questions

- How did Paul pray believers would know God's will?
- What does James 1:5 promise when I ask for wisdom?
- Has God already given me principles in Scripture for this decision?
- What does wise counsel say?
- Is waiting for a sign a form of avoiding responsibility or fear?
- Can I take a wise step and trust God to guide me as I go?
- What decision am I putting off, and why?

5 My practice plan

Everyone does the first three. Then pick one or two extra tools.

EVERYONE DOES THESE

- ☐ Make my Truth Card (below). Carry it and read it at least three times a day.
- ☐ Memorize my Scripture from Step 4.
- ☐ Set reminders to silently repeat my truth. Check one or more:
  - ☐ A buzz: my watch or phone vibrates every _____ minutes
  - ☐ An everyday event: every time I _____
  - ☐ A visual reminder: something I will see often, such as a sticky note on my mirror, my truth as the background picture on my phone, or a note on my car dashboard.

PICK ONE OR TWO THAT FIT ME

- ☐ Decision log: For each decision, write: What does Scripture say? What does wise counsel say? What is the wise step? Then take it.
- ☐ My name in Scripture: Rewrite my verse with my name in it and read it aloud each morning.
  For example, Psalm 32:8 becomes: "I will instruct Sarah and teach her the way she should go; I will give her counsel and watch over her."
- ☐ Gratitude journal: Each night, write three things I thank God for.
- ☐ Truth recording: Record my own voice reading my Truth Card and verse, and listen in the car or on a walk.
- ☐ Reading: The "Guidance" topic in Pearls.
- ☐ Listening: The Overcoming Anxiety audio download.

6 My action step this week

Do one thing that tests the lie in real life.

- ☐ Choose one decision you've been putting off, pray for wisdom, gather counsel, and make it by a set date.
- ☐ Read Colossians 1:9–12, and write how Paul expected believers to know God's will.
- ☐ Practice small decisions quickly this week, such as what to eat or wear, without seeking a sign.
- ☐ Talk with a Christian counselor if fear of wrong decisions is paralyzing.
