“Faith means never asking questions.”

Where it often comes from

Being told to “just believe” when you asked honest questions as a child. Leaders who treated questions as rebellion. Fear that asking will lead you away from God. A family or church where certainty was valued over understanding. Embarrassment about not knowing answers.

What Scripture teaches

Scripture is full of faithful people who asked God hard questions. Habakkuk cried, “How long, O LORD?” Mary asked the angel, “How can this be?” The psalmists asked why and how long. God invited people to reason with Him. Peter tells believers to be ready to give a reason for their hope. Honest questions, brought to God with humility, can deepen faith rather than destroy it.

> “How long, O LORD, must I call for help but You do not hear, or cry out to You, ‘Violence!’ but You do not save?” (Habakkuk 1:2).

Also see

> “How long, O LORD? Will You forget me forever? How long will You hide Your face from me? How long must I wrestle in my soul, with sorrow in my heart each day? How long will my enemy dominate me?” (Psalm 13:1–2).

> “‘How can this be,’ Mary asked the angel, ‘since I am a virgin?’” (Luke 1:34).

> “Now if any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to him” (James 1:5).

> “But in your hearts sanctify Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give a defense to everyone who asks you the reason for the hope that is in you. But respond with gentleness and respect” (1 Peter 3:15).

Common self-statements

- Asking questions means I don’t trust God.
- Good Christians just accept everything.
- If I start asking, I’ll lose my faith.
- God is offended by my questions.
- Thinking too much is dangerous.
- I shouldn’t need to understand.

Common logical errors

- All-or-nothing thinking: Believing you must either never question or abandon faith.
- Fear-based thinking: Avoiding questions because you fear where they might lead.
- Should statements: “I should accept everything without asking.”
- Mental filter: Overlooking the many questions asked by faithful people in Scripture.

Challenging questions

- Did Habakkuk, Mary, and the psalmists ask God questions?
- Did God punish them for asking?
- What does Peter say I should be ready to give?
- Is my faith in God, or in never having questions?
- What does James 1:5 say I can ask for?
- Who taught me that questions are dangerous?
- What question have I been afraid to ask?

Truth summary

> Faith does not mean never asking questions. Faithful people in Scripture brought hard questions to God. I can ask honestly and humbly, seek wisdom, and trust God even when some answers do not come. My faith rests on God, not on avoiding questions.

5 My practice plan

Everyone does the first three. Then pick one or two extra tools.

EVERYONE DOES THESE

- ☐ Make my Truth Card (below). Carry it and read it at least three times a day.
- ☐ Memorize my Scripture from Step 4.
- ☐ Set reminders to silently repeat my truth. Check one or more:
  - ☐ A buzz: my watch or phone vibrates every _____ minutes
  - ☐ An everyday event: every time I _____
  - ☐ A visual reminder: something I will see often, such as a sticky note on my mirror, my truth as the background picture on my phone, or a note on my car dashboard.

PICK ONE OR TWO THAT FIT ME

- ☐ Question journal: Each day, write one honest question for God and one thing I learned while seeking.
- ☐ My name in Scripture: Rewrite my verse with my name in it and read it aloud each morning.
  For example, James 1:5 becomes: "Now if Sarah lacks wisdom, she should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to her."
- ☐ Gratitude journal: Each night, write three things I thank God for.
- ☐ Truth recording: Record my own voice reading my Truth Card and verse, and listen in the car or on a walk.
- ☐ Reading: The "Wisdom" topic in Pearls.
- ☐ Listening: The Overcoming Anxiety audio download.

6 My action step this week

Do one thing that tests the lie in real life.

- ☐ Write down a question you've been afraid to ask, and bring it to God in prayer.
- ☐ Read the whole book of Habakkuk (three short chapters), and notice how his questions lead to trust.
- ☐ Ask your pastor or a mature Christian one honest question this week.
- ☐ Look up what the Bible says about your question using a study Bible or concordance.
