“Satan has power over me, and I am helpless.”

Where it often comes from

Frightening stories or movies about demonic power. Teaching that focused more on the devil’s strength than on Christ’s victory. Long struggles with temptation, fear, or dark thoughts that seem impossible to escape. Past involvement in the occult. Trauma that left you feeling powerless in general.

What Scripture teaches

Satan is real, but he is a defeated enemy. At the cross, Christ disarmed the powers and authorities and triumphed over them. The One who lives in you is greater than the one who is in the world. You are not helpless: you can submit to God, resist the devil, and he will flee. The Lord is faithful to strengthen you and guard you from the evil one.

> “You, little children, are from God and have overcome them, because greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world” (1 John 4:4).

> “Submit yourselves, then, to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you” (James 4:7).

> “But the Lord is faithful, and He will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one” (2 Thessalonians 3:3).

> “No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us” (Romans 8:37).

Common self-statements

- The devil is stronger than I am.
- I can’t fight this.
- Evil has a hold on me I can’t break.
- God isn’t protecting me.
- I’m just a victim of spiritual forces.
- There’s nothing I can do.

Common logical errors

- Magnification: Making the enemy look bigger than Christ.
- Helplessness: Believing you have no choices or power when God has given you both.
- Emotional reasoning: Concluding “I feel powerless, so I am powerless.”
- Mental filter: Focusing on the devil’s schemes while ignoring Christ’s victory.
- Fortune telling: Predicting you will always be defeated.

Challenging questions

- Who is greater: the One in me or the one in the world?
- What happened to the powers and authorities at the cross?
- What does James 4:7 say will happen when I resist the devil?
- Is it possible I have given the devil more credit than Scripture does?
- What choices do I still have, even in this struggle?
- Has God ever helped me resist something before?
- Who promises to guard me from the evil one?

Truth summary

> Satan does not have the final power over me. Jesus defeated him at the cross, and the One who lives in me is greater. I am not helpless: I can submit to God and resist the devil, and he will flee. The Lord is faithful to strengthen me and guard me. In Christ I am more than a conqueror.

Read through each section and check the one that fits you best. If none of them fit, write your own. One choice per section is enough. A truth you choose for yourself will stick better than one handed to you.

2 My best question

The one question I will ask myself every time the lie shows up.

- ☐ Who is greater: the One in me or the one in the world?
- ☐ What happened to evil powers at the cross?
- ☐ What does James 4:7 promise when I resist?
- ☐ Have I given the devil more credit than Scripture does?
- ☐ What choices do I still have?
- ☐ Who promises to guard me?

My own question: _____

3 My replacement truth

The statement I will say to myself instead of the lie.

- ☐ Greater is He who is in me than he who is in the world.
- ☐ Jesus defeated Satan at the cross.
- ☐ When I resist the devil, he will flee.
- ☐ The Lord is faithful to guard me from the evil one.
- ☐ In Christ I am more than a conqueror.
- ☐ I am not helpless; I have choices and God's strength.

5 My practice plan

Everyone does the first three. Then pick one or two extra tools.

EVERYONE DOES THESE

- ☐ Make my Truth Card (below). Carry it and read it at least three times a day.
- ☐ Memorize my Scripture from Step 4.
- ☐ Set reminders to silently repeat my truth. Check one or more:
  - ☐ A buzz: my watch or phone vibrates every _____ minutes
  - ☐ An everyday event: every time I _____
  - ☐ A visual reminder: something I will see often, such as a sticky note on my mirror, my truth as the background picture on my phone, or a note on my car dashboard.

PICK ONE OR TWO THAT FIT ME

- ☐ Victory log: Each day, write one way I resisted a lie or temptation, however small, and thank God for His strength.
- ☐ My name in Scripture: Rewrite my verse with my name in it and read it aloud each morning.
  For example, 2 Thessalonians 3:3 becomes: "But the Lord is faithful, and He will strengthen Sarah and guard her from the evil one."
- ☐ Gratitude journal: Each night, write three things I thank God for.
- ☐ Truth recording: Record my own voice reading my Truth Card and verse, and listen in the car or on a walk.
- ☐ Reading: The "Evil, Resisting" topic in Pearls.
- ☐ Listening: The Overcoming Anxiety audio by Dr. Brian Campbell. Tap to play.

6 My action step this week

Do one thing that tests the lie in real life.

- ☐ When the fear or temptation comes, say aloud, "Greater is He who is in me," then take one small step of obedience.
- ☐ Remove one thing from your home or phone that feeds fear or temptation.
- ☐ Read Ephesians 6:10–18 and write how each piece of armor applies to your struggle.
- ☐ Ask a pastor or trusted believer to pray with you, and notice how it feels to not fight alone.

Lord Jesus, thank You that You triumphed over every evil power at the cross. Help me reject the lie that Satan has power over me and that I am helpless. I submit myself to You. Strengthen me, guard me from the evil one, and help me stand firm. You are greater than anything I face. In Your name, Amen.
