SPIRITUAL/RELIGIOUS FALSE BELIEF #89 · THE BIBLE

“Any verse is a promise I can claim for whatever I want.”

✦ ✦ ✦

Where it often comes from

Teaching that encourages “claiming” verses for health, wealth, or success. Popular verses on posters taken out of context. Desperation for a specific outcome. Disappointment when a “claimed” promise did not come true. Misunderstanding the difference between promises and principles.

What Scripture teaches

God’s promises are true, and we can trust them. But not every verse is a promise for every situation, and God’s promises are not tools for getting whatever we want. Jeremiah 29:11 was spoken to exiles in Babylon who would wait seventy years. James says we sometimes do not receive because we ask with wrong motives. We pray according to God’s will. Rightly understood, His promises give hope, but they serve His purposes, not ours.

> “For this is what the LORD says: ‘When Babylon’s seventy years are complete, I will attend to you and confirm My promise to restore you to this place. For I know the plans I have for you, declares the LORD, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, to give you a future and a hope.’”
> (Jeremiah 29:10–11).

> “And this is the confidence that we have before Him: If we ask anything according to His will, He hears us” (1 John 5:14).

> “Make every effort to present yourself approved to God, an unashamed workman who accurately handles the word of truth” (2 Timothy 2:15).

> “I know how to live humbly, and I know how to abound. I am accustomed to any and every situation—to being filled and being hungry, to having plenty and having need. I can do all things through Christ who gives me strength” (Philippians 4:12–13).

Common self-statements

- God promised this, so He has to do it.
- I’m claiming this verse for my situation.
- If it didn’t happen, I didn’t claim it right.
- Every verse is a promise to me.
- Philippians 4:13 means I can do anything I want.
- God owes me what the verse says.

Common logical errors

- Taking verses out of context: Applying a promise without knowing who it was for.
- Magical thinking: Believing that “claiming” a verse forces an outcome.

- Self-centered reading: Using Scripture to get what you want rather than to know God.
- Disappointment-driven thinking: Concluding God failed when a misapplied promise didn't happen.

Challenging questions

- Who was Jeremiah 29:11 first spoken to, and how long did they wait?
- Is this verse a promise, a principle, or a description?
- What does James 4:3 say about wrong motives?
- Am I asking according to God's will or mine?
- What did Paul mean by "I can do all things" in Philippians 4?
- Has God failed me, or did I misunderstand the verse?
- What promises of God am I sure apply to me in Christ?

Truth summary

> Not every verse is a promise I can claim for whatever I want. God's promises are true, but I need to understand them in context and pray according to His will. His promises serve His purposes and give me hope, even in hard seasons. I can trust what He has truly promised in Christ.

- ☐ Is this a promise, principle, or description?
- ☐ What does James say about wrong motives?
- ☐ Am I asking for God's will or mine?

3 My replacement truth

The statement I will say to myself instead of the lie.

- ☐ God's promises are true when rightly understood.
- ☐ I pray according to God's will.
- ☐ God's promises serve His purposes, not my wishes.
- ☐ I can read promises in their context.
- ☐ God's plans for His people include hope, even through waiting.
- ☐ I can be content in Christ in every situation.

5 My practice plan

Everyone does the first three. Then pick one or two extra tools.

EVERYONE DOES THESE

- ☐ Make my Truth Card (below). Carry it and read it at least three times a day.
- ☐ Memorize my Scripture from Step 4.
- ☐ Set reminders to silently repeat my truth. Check one or more:
  - ☐ A buzz: my watch or phone vibrates every _____ minutes
  - ☐ An everyday event: every time I _____
  - ☐ A visual reminder: something I will see often, such as a sticky note on my mirror, my truth as the background picture on my phone, or a note on my car dashboard.

PICK ONE OR TWO THAT FIT ME

- ☐ True promises list: Each day, write one promise God has made to all believers in Christ, with its reference.
- ☐ My name in Scripture: Rewrite my verse with my name in it and read it aloud each morning.
  For example, 1 John 5:14 becomes: "And this is the confidence that Sarah has before Him: If she asks anything according to His will, He hears her."
- ☐ Gratitude journal: Each night, write three things I thank God for.
- ☐ Truth recording: Record my own voice reading my Truth Card and verse, and listen in the car or on a walk.
- ☐ Reading: The "Prayer, Answers to" topic in Pearls.
- ☐ Listening: The Overcoming Anxiety audio by Dr. Brian Campbell. Tap to play.

6 My action step this week

Do one thing that tests the lie in real life.

- ☐ Read Jeremiah 29:1–14, and write who the promise was for and how long they had to wait.
- ☐ Read Philippians 4:10–13, and write what "all things" meant for Paul.
- ☐ Make a list of promises given to all believers, such as Romans 8:1, 8:28, and Hebrews 13:5.
- ☐ When praying for something you want, add, "Your will be done."
