"Everyone else is better than me."

✦ ✦ ✦

Where it often comes from

Constant comparison in school, work, and social settings convinces some that they are at the bottom. This belief shrinks risk-taking, friendships, and joy.

What Scripture teaches

Paul writes, "Each one should test his own work. Then he will have reason to boast in himself alone, and not in someone else." "Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but think of yourself with sober judgment." And God "has composed the body... so that there should be no division in the body, but that its members should have mutual concern for one another" (1 Corinthians 12:24–25). Different gifts are not better or worse; they are needed. You have your place and your part.

> "Each one should test his own work. Then he will have reason to boast in himself alone, and not in someone else" (Galatians 6:4).

Also see

> "For by the grace given me I say to every one of you: Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but think of yourself with sober judgment, according to the measure of faith God has given you" (Romans 12:3).

> "On the contrary, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable" (1 Corinthians 12:22).

> "Just as each of us has one body with many members, and not all members have the same function, so in Christ we who are many are one body, and each member belongs to one another. We have different gifts according to the grace given us. If one's gift is prophecy, let him use it in proportion to his faith" (Romans 12:4–6).

> "I praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Marvelous are Your works, and I know this very well" (Psalm 139:14).

Read through each section and check the one that fits you best. If none of them fit, write your own. One choice per section is enough. A truth you choose for yourself will stick better than one handed to you.

- ☐ What gifts do I have that others lack?
- ☐ What do I contribute?
- ☐ What does Scripture say about each member of the body?
- ☐ Who values me?

- ☐ I have a place.

Practicing the Truth

5 My practice plan

Everyone does the first four. Then pick one or two extra tools.

EVERYONE DOES THESE

- [ ] Make my Truth Card (below). Carry it and read it at least three times a day.
- [ ] Memorize my Scripture from Step 4.
- [ ] Listen to one song each day from "Songs that speak truth to this belief" on my card, and fill in my song journal (below).
- [ ] Set reminders to silently repeat my truth. Check one or more:
  - ☐ A buzz: my watch or phone vibrates every _____ minutes
  - ☐ An everyday event: every time I _____
  - ☐ A visual reminder: something I will see often, such as a sticky note on my mirror, my truth as the background picture on my phone, or a note on my car dashboard.

PICK ONE OR TWO THAT FIT ME

- [ ] My part: Each week, note one contribution you made.
- [ ] My name in Scripture: Write a personal reminder based on my verse and read it aloud. Keep this application separate from the Bible quotation.

  For example, Galatians 6:4 becomes: "Sarah can write: "Everyone has different gifts, and mine are needed.""
- [ ] Gratitude journal: Each night, write three things I thank God for.
- [ ] Truth recording: Record my own voice reading my Truth Card and verse, and listen in the car or on a walk.
- [ ] Reading: The "Envy/Jealousy" topic in Pearls.
- [ ] Listening: The Overcoming Depression audio by Dr. Brian Campbell. Tap to play.

6 My action step this week

Do one thing that tests the lie in real life.

These cards support emotional and spiritual care and do not replace medical care. Follow your doctor's advice about treatment and medication, and choose steps that are safe for your body. In an emergency call 911; for thoughts of self-harm call or text 988 (U.S.).

- [ ] List your gifts. Write what you offer.
- [ ] Stop one comparison. Limit what feeds it.
- [ ] Thank someone. Appreciate another's strength.
- [ ] Read Romans 12:4–6. See the body at work.
